

1. It is imperative that Israel respond to Ambassador Jarring's memorandum of February 8, 1971. Israel's reply should contain the commitments called for by Ambassador Jarring including the withdrawal of its troops to the international border between Egypt and mandated Palestine.
2. Withdrawal from the Egyptian territory and the Gaza Sector shall be effected in two stages.

The First Stage :

- A. The Israeli forces shall withdraw to a line extending from Al Arish to Ras Mohamed.
- B. Clearing of the Suez Canal shall start.
- C. Egyptian Armed Forces shall cross the Suez Canal.
- D. Specific date will be designated for the completion of the first stage.

The Second Stage :

- A. Israeli forces shall completely withdraw to the international Egyptian border and from Gaza Sector.
- B. Administrative conditions in Gaza shall be restored to their status prior to June 5, 1967.
- C. Specific date will be designated for the completion of the second stage.

3. United Nations :

- A. The United Nations shall ensure and supervise the withdrawal of Israeli troops during the two stages.
- B. United Nations forces shall be stationed in the Gaza Sector and Sharm El Skeikh.

4. Demilitarized Zones :

The United Arab Republic accepts the establishment of demilitarized zones provided they are astride the border and on equal distances.

5. Cease-fire :

A cease-fire shall come into force upon the initiation of the practical implementation of the first stage.

6. Should Israel violate its obligations, Egyptian Armed Forces retain freedom of action on the basis of Egypt's commitment — from both the point of view of law and principle — to the overall liberation of all occupied Arab territories.
